Acknowledgements

Gratitude is extended to my supervisor, George Gotsadze, who supported me throughout this process with his insightful and disciplinary feedback during my thesis work, which has been instrumental in my personal and academic growth.

Appreciation goes to Curatio International Foundation for providing the opportunity to complete an internship. Special thanks to internship supervisor Tsotne Gorgodze for his accessibility, clear guidance, and encouragement, which were pivotal to my progress.

Lastly, heartfelt thanks go to Ilia State University and all the professors we had over the past two years for their significant contributions to our professional growth. A special mention goes to my fellow students, whose camaraderie and support have made this academic journey truly enriching.
