

Pension systems in Southern Europe –
Challenges and Opportunities

Authors: Elza Jgerenaia (Ilia State University), Paulo Reis Mourao (University of Minho), Tengiz Verulava (Ilia State University)

Hacienda Pública Española/Review of Public Economics

Abstract:

Southern European countries (Greece, Italy, Portugal, and Spain) exhibit relevant challenges related to pension systems. These challenges are here revisited. We also discuss the political and socio-economic roots of these challenges. Finally, we analyze the social indicators, the social expenses and the aging scenarios of these countries.