Acknowledgement

We would love to express our sincere gratitude to all those who participated and assisted us in finding adequate materials for this paper.

We would like to thank our academic supervisor, Professor Tamar Jinchveladze, for her guidance and patience throughout our work.

We also wish to show our appreciation to the Institution, ILIA STATE UNIVERSITY, for giving us the opportunity to contribute to public policy through this research.

To the companies which our findings were based on, we show deep appreciation for providing us with all the information that we needed without holding back regardless of our urgency and pressure; We say “Thank You”.

Most especially, we give a special honor to our families. The Gambashidzes, the Njoku’s, and the Al-Madrahi’s who have stood by us throughout the way to ensure that we get to this level.

We appreciate the encouragement, patience and support both morally and financially towards the achievement of this work.
